Subject No. 147.

Enhancement of Potgi to Shanbhogs and Patels.

Mr. Nadig Sivappa of Sorab

Summary of Representation.—The Survey and Settlement Rules of the Bombay Presidency were introduced into the State. Potgi allowance at the rate of Rs. 5 per cent for shanbhog and Rs. 4 per cent for patel, is granted in that Presidency. In this State the rule at present is that a shanbhog should do the duties of only one firka. If the Potgi of that firka be very small, he has to look after the work of more firkas than one, to get remuneration sufficient for his living. The Potgi allowance may be increased so that the emoluments of a shanbhog may on an average be Rs. 15 per month.

Reply of Government.—Noted.
